Agenda Topic	WNC Bookstore (Kyle Dalpe, Darla Dodge)
Action Taken	None
Summary of Discussion
Assignments/Potential Agenda Items
Comments/Information	Information and Discussion: Kyle Dalpe ● Gabrielle - suggests TMCC's online textbook conversion system and will get more information on it ● Is looking into student's preference of online resources ● In contract with Follett ● Donnell - Teachers regarding their book requests or other resources (less costly) outside of WNC's bookstore ● Kyle's response: Students with a completed FAFSA get aid to pay their books from the bookstore, not necessarily other resources outside WNC ● Donnell- had complications with his online book order and was forced to seek a third party ● Heather - Students have had issues with Follett regarding their process to deliver books. The issue is in progress to become resolved ● Kyle - There are concerns of the August semester on how books will be delivered to students if COVID-19 complications continue ● Jeffrey Downs joins the meeting at 2:54 P.M ● Heather - A "Walmart" type pick up may be the best option ● Kyle - Regarding Dannell's comment about teachers' book requests when there are no actual books available, it's up to the bookstore to pick that up. ● Michael - Nevada has joined the western state pack, how will that impact us? ● Kyle's response - Summer classes will remain online. However other semesters such as Fall aren't currently clear. A new level of Zoom can possibly be built for snow days for example.
